NEWSLETTER

12th May 2014

The final two weeks of school will be busy with children completing their assessments so that staff can judge the progress made and their future needs. Good luck to all the children in Year 6 as they sit their end of Key Stage Two tests.

If you have any questions or queries, please do not hesitate to contact me at school.

Sharing assembly

Sharing assembly will be held on Friday this week as usual; starting at 2.40pm in the Village Hall. There will be a 100 club draw during this week's assembly.

Class 2: Evan Bartlett for wonderful maths and always trying his best

Class 3: Layla Orriss for continuing to read regularly and making good progress with her reading

Toys in school

I would like to remind all children and parents that we do not allow the bringing in of toys and games from home. This avoids any unnecessary upset or anguish should the toy go missing or get broken. We have a range of equipment in school to support the children in their play and their learning. If items are required to be brought in to support any topic based work then a note will be sent home to let families know. Your support and cooperation in this matter is much appreciated.

Sickness and diarrhoea

A reminder that following a bout of sickness or diarrhoea, the child needs to remain absent from school for a period of 48 hours following the last episode of either. This ensures that the child is fully recovered and minimises the potential for others to pick up the same bug. If you have any queries about this, please contact me at school.

Report consultation

Thank you to everyone who took the time to read through the two report formats and complete the feedback form. The forms will now be collated and your thoughts and opinions taken into consideration when we finalise this year's school report.

As you may be aware the National Curriculum has been revised with the new requirement becoming statutory in September 2014. We are in the process of adjusting our own school curriculum to reflect these changes. There will be a parents' information evening about the curriculum early in the Autumn term when we return for the new academic year. It is hoped that many of you will be able to join us for this evening and find out more about what goes on in school.

Orang-utan project

Don't forget - the artwork that the children in class 4 produced as a result of their work with Miss Pitchford is being displayed in Ellesmere Port Library. The work will be on display from Tuesday 13th May until Thursday 5th June 2014 inclusive. I hope that you can find time to pop along and see the children's work.

Birthday Celebrations

The following children have celebrated a birthday during the holidays or this week:
