

CAPENHURST CE PRIMARY SCHOOL

NEWSLETTER

7th February 2022

It has been a busy start to the Spring term! Thankfully we are starting to see signs that spring itself is not too far away as the trees start to bud with new leaves and bulbs are appearing through the soil. During worship this morning, we talked about the Queen's Platinum Jubilee and have begun to think about how we can mark the occasion as a school community. The Ethos Group had been tasked with giving this some thought and start to make plans. If you have any ideas, please do share them with school.

Please complete the ParentMail form regarding parents' evening appointments if you have not done so already, so that time slots can be allocated.

Any questions, please email us at contact@capenhurstcep.cheshire.sch.uk

Covid updates - there are a few!

- Isolation following a positive test (LFD or PCR) can be reduced following TWO consecutive negative lateral flow tests from day 5 onwards (in England). All results need to be shared with school so that we can track return to school and transmission within school.
- Please be aware that the date of the test or start of symptoms is counted as day zero and not day one.
- If you or your child are a household contact or close contact, please complete daily LFD testing for 7 days. Your child can attend school, if their test result is negative.
- Confirmatory PCR testing is not required following a positive LFD test.
- PCR tests are to be taken if you or your child develops one of the three main symptoms. Please be aware that sore throats, fatigue, muscle and joint aches and upset stomachs are frequent symptoms of the Omicron variant. You may choose to book a PCR test for your child with these additional symptoms as LFD tests do not always pick up the Omicron variant where a sore throat is a symptom due to the lack of a throat swab involved in the testing process.
- LFD tests can be used by people who have previously had covid; the 90 day wait has been removed.
- If you have previously had covid but develop new symptoms, even within 90 days of your previous infection, please book a PCR test.
- Children and adults awaiting results of a PCR test are to isolate and not attend school.
- All tests results are to be shared with school. Please wait for confirmation that they have been seen before sending your child back to school.
- If you live in North Wales, you must follow the rules of the country in which you are resident; your child can return to school on the day following two negative consecutive LFD tests (day 8 at the earliest).
